Silver Valley and Sierra Mine Historic Tour

Head to downtown Wallace, the historic mining town, in the beautiful Silver Valley, where you will begin your tour at the Sierra Silver Mine. Board the Silver Mine trolley and make your way through downtown Wallace, while learning about the history of the silver capital of the world! Once you arrive at the mine, an experienced miner will take you on a tour through the main drift of an actual underground silver mine. Using exhibits, and demonstrations of operating mine equipment, you will learn the historical and modern day techniques used to mine silver. In the heart of downtown, you will begin the city tour at the Northern Pacific Railroad Museum. From there, you will head over to the Oasis Bordello Museum. The museum is housed in a former brothel which was still in business as recently as 1988. The last residents left in a hurry, leaving all of their belongings behind. A local entrepreneur purchased the building in 1993, and opened the doors once more offering tours as a reminder of Wallace's colorful past. Lastly, you will head over to the Wallace Mining Museum where you will learn about local history, mining efforts, and the areas unique heritage. This event runs from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.
