WASHINGTON BANKERS ASSOCIATION

Affiliate Membership

The Washington Bankers Association was founded by bankers in 1889, and was incorporated in 1970. Through advocacy, comprehensive programming, and information exchange, WBA protects, develops, and advances the business of banking in Washington State.

Organizations, other than financial institutions, doing business in Washington State and having a business relationship with the financial industry are eligible for Affiliate membership. Annual dues for Affiliate members are $1,000.

Membership Advantages

Our goal is to enhance the ability of our Affiliate members to compete effectively and profitably in the financial services industry. Affiliate members are entitled to the following benefits:

- Attend WBA conferences and seminars at member rates, including the annual Bankers Convention. Discounts are available for exhibiting at Bankers Convention.
- Subscription to *Issues & Answer*s, the official news publication of the WBA. Affiliate members are encouraged to submit articles for publication.
- Access to all WBA member benefits, including a highly competitive Office Depot group purchasing contract, and tuition savings at City University.
- Use of the WBA mail list (updated and distributed semi-annually).
- Savings on products and services provided by WBA endorsed vendors.
- Opportunities to associate with bankers and state financialinstitutions.

APPLICATION FOR AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Affiliate memberships are available to organizations other than financial institutions doing business in Washington State and having business relationships with the financial industry. Annual dues are $1,000, and the member year is January 1 - December 31.
